

Lewis A. Nader

Lewis A. Nader, 91, of 122 Mill street, New Lexington, retired brick mason and contractor died at Good Samaritan Hospital at 10 a.m. Sunday. He had been a patient one week and had undergone surgery Thursday.

Mr. Nader was a member of the New Lexington school board many years. He was active in the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church for 59 years. He was treasurer of the Bricklayers Union Local 53, for 40 years before retiring. For many years he was part owner of the Nader Brothers Contracting firm.

He was born July 3, 1871 in Monday Creek Township of Perry County, a son of Frederick and Saloma Martzoff Nader.

Mr. Nader is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Gladys Hummel of the home; a son, Adrian of River Edge, N. J.; a sister, Mrs. Margaret Dennis of Denver, Colo. His wife, Bertie, a son, Harold, and two grandchildren preceded him in death.

The body is at Roberts Funeral Home, New Lexington, where friends may call after 7 tonight and until services at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the New Lexington Holy Trinity Church. The Rev. David Fry will officiate and burial will follow in New Lexington Cemetery.